Parent comments :

- I am very grateful to the amount of support given to my son
- Both of my children are becoming more confident and enjoying their school year
- We are so proud of their reports and thanks to the teachers support staff and management.
- Feedback and communication to working parents could be improved. Children don't always pass on information. I do not always feel equipped to help my children with learning
- Thank you for a wonderful year of learning
- Please give out the inset days by Christmas so Annual leave can be planned
- My child is happy and knows he has someone to talk to if he is worried
- Staff are warm and inspire the children to be creative and inquisitive
- Strong values are reinforced and it is very inclusive
- Bullying rating of don't know is due to fact we don't have much experience about it. We do know that the school is very keen in dealing with it effectively
- Neither me or my child are happy with the amount of Christian religious teaching in this school – far too much when they could be learning
- Love the outdoor learning & forest school
- Love the out of school activities
- Outstanding teachers!
- Healthier meals – not ice-cream, not cakes not chips. More fruit vegetables and fresh fish.
- Thankyou St Andrew's for your warm welcome, we really love the school.
- So great such a special place, keep doing what you are doing.
- Maybe less puddings and more outdoor physical exercise? otherwise bravo !! thank you
- Amazing school & lovely staff
- We're very happy sending our children to St Andrew's
- Couldn't be better
- Love forest school
- Great teachers!
